

Take² exam insurance from PeopleCert

Your second chance at certification

We very much hope through the quality of our training you won't require this service but PeopleCert is offering candidate's exam insurance called Take2. Take2 can be added on at the point of booking at a fraction of the exam price.

If the outcome of your exam is not what you expected, you have another shot, which becomes available to you exclusively through Online Proctoring. Take2 offers you:

Peace of mind

Gives you the chance to retake a demanding exam, futureproofing your chances against any unexpected setbacks

Plenty of time to prepare

Gives you up to 6 months from the date of the initial exam, ensuring that you have all the time you need to get ready

An affordable solution

Allows you to retake an unsuccessful exam at a fixed, attractive rate, at a fraction of the cost, without having to purchase it again at full price

Convenience

Allows you to schedule the re-sit exam when it best suits your schedule and take it from the comfort of your home or office

Arrange your re-sit exam

If you have purchased Take² and an unsuccessful outcome occurs for your initial exam, then the re-sit option is enabled. When your official exam results become available, you are notified by e-mail to schedule your re-sit exam. It will be conducted through online proctoring offering you flexibility to take it from your home or office, at the time of your convenience. You have up to 6 months to prepare and take your re-sit exam from the date of your initial exam.

Now that Take² is available, focus on what matters the most...your preparation!
